

THE SACCO SOCIETIES REGULATORY AUTHORITY
(SASRA)

INTERNAL MEMO

To : Chief Executive Officer
From : Manager Compliance – Market Conduct
Date : 16th March 2022
Subject : Retreat for development of Market conduct documents

*Approved
22/3*

Reference is made to above subject matter and the approved performance contract for the FY 2021-22 thereto. The department proposes to proceed for a retreat to Naivasha from 4th to 8th April 2022 to finalise the development of

1. The onsite inspection tool for Market Conduct
2. Review the existing approved guideline for Complaints management by saccos

Once complete the guideline shall be used for sensitisation at the upcoming regulatory roundtable in which the saccos will be exposed to it for subsequent implementation, further the onsite tool will be critical for reporting to enable the Authority to get a glimpse on compliance rate that will later inform policy reforms.

In cognizance of the workload, a team that comprises of portfolio team leaders, policy and enforcement representatives and a legal officer and an intern for learning purposes have been identified for the task with the expected output at the end of the retreat being:

1. Onsite inspection tool for Market Conduct
2. Revised Guideline for Complaints management by saccos
(See attached programme and budget)

The proposed team will comprise as follows:

Group one

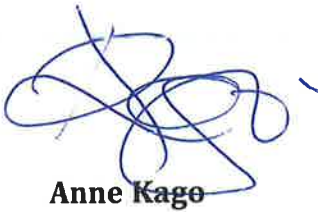

1. Anne Kago
2. Kenneth Bichanga
3. Francis Mwangi
4. Daniel Kimoli
5. Anthony Mkabane
6. George Obunaka

7. Joy Gatwiri (legal)
8. Stephen Njuguna (Intern)

Group two (to attend on the third day for review)

1. Jeremiah Were
2. Joseph Osoro
3. David Kahuthu
4. Sophia Mukiri

In addition, the team will require conference facilities. The purpose of this memo therefore is to seek your approval of the team composition and procurement of conference facilities.

Anne Kago
